

DECEMBER 2020 | PANEL 58

SHARINGS

DISTRICT 3, GREATER JACKSONVILLE, FL
SERVING BAKER, CLAY, DUVAL AND NASSAU COUNTIES

Sharing our...

Thank you, Panel 58!

December of 2020 sees the end of our District's Service Panel. For those that are unfamiliar, Al-Anon is much more than the weekly meetings that groups have. There are trusted servants who volunteer their time, resources, and talents to do many behind-the-scenes things that it takes to run the program that Al-Anon does.

The District meets 10 times a year, along with the Group Representatives, to brainstorm, share, and work together to further the message of carrying Al-Anon to those who need it. There are discussions centered around literature, community outreach, planning events and to enjoy the fellowship, and friendship that being part of a loving group enjoys.

There are still many service positions available for the next panel, which will start meeting in January 2021. For open positions, job descriptions, and more, go to www.jaxafg.org.

A Final Thought

For me, 2020 has not been the greatest of years. I lost a friend to the virus, many I know have lost jobs, or are down in business, there is much division among friends and families over just about everything these days. I can easily find myself mired in my old way of thinking, "If I could only" or "If THEY would only...." The cure for me has been to focus on myself; what is good, what is going right, or just to make a gratitude list. It is so often the key to a brighter day and the way to a much more serene life. -Anonymous
