-Anonymous

"If I am going to learn to say 'no' to my family members and/or friends then having people around me who love and support me is a good thing. They can be my 'yes' group. Al-Anon can serve that purpose. Yes, 'we love you in a very special way' said at each Al-Anon meeting."

"I need positive structure in my life! Coming here I know ESH awaits and lots of pearls and gems. My sponsor nudged me into service. She said I would get ready while doing it. That seemed scary but she reminded me everyone else was doing the same! It feels good to not be the first or alone!"

"Beneath my fear is an issue with trust. I don't trust easily, and that includes my Higher Power. Fortunately for me, this Power is loving, patient, gentle, and has a sense of humor. This Power doesn't mind repeating Herself until I'm ready and willing to hear the message."

-Note: Please send your tidbits of ESH to be published in the next Sharings to:
newslettereditor@jaxafg.org

In Case You Missed It!

"Having my Higher Power's guidance always leads me to a better outcome than when I venture alone."
